Timeless treasures of life

Memories are a peculiar thing, they often become distorted with time. But, we hold on to it like a treasure in the colours of the wall, the books on the shelf, the notes in the drawer, souvenirs from places and people. Here, everything comes together to create the perfect mosaic of our lives.

It's a space that makes pockets of time and with every revisit, we add a little bit of present in the past.

Woodgrains

Wherever we go, we build things, big or small to hold our emotions and carry it, pass it on to generations that come after. The instinct to preserve memories in the form of trinkets and artefacts is, in itself, precious.
